and remotely on Zoom

Let us then try what Love will do

(William Penn, Some Fruits of Solitude)

Welcome to the College Park Quarterly Meeting Winter Session. During this day of worship and fellowship we will especially consider the meaning of William Penn's words in our lives today. There will be concurrent children's and teen programs.

Agenda:

10 a.m. Opening Worship

11 a.m. Brief business session (Nominating, Treasurer, interim report from the ad hoc committee on the future of Quarterly Meeting)

11:30 a.m. to 1:30 p.m. Lunch and fellowship: Bring your lunch or eat out in local restaurants

1:30 p.m. Worship Sharing groups

3 p.m. Interest Groups

4:15 Carry-over business (Action on Nominations, Registrar, children and teen reports)

4:30 p.m. to 5:30 p.m. Closing Worship

6 p.m. Optional Dinner with Teens

Note: The Teen Program includes an overnight campout in the Meetinghouse. Teens wishing to spend Saturday night should contact Keenan Lorenzato for details, permission forms, etc. at youthprogramscoordinator@pacificyearlymeeting.org

Pay as led; suggested donation is $25. Register at <https://collegeparkquarterlymeeting.org/>
Zoom links and payment methods will be sent to registrants before the meeting.
